

Sabbath Topic: Brazil

A survey of Christian educational needs in eastern Brazil will be presented Saturday as a part of the Sabbath school services of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave.

The presentation will be made by Mrs. Cecia Foster as a part of the congregation's weekly "emphasis-on-missions" period.

THE REPORT, written for the local church by Claudio Belz, a third generation Brazilian pastor, reveals that the Adventist Church operates 122 elementary schools, five high schools, and one college in the eastern Brazil area.

Critical needs of the Northeast Brazil College located in Pernambuco, Brazil, are presented in the report. Pastor Belz, a former president of the college, writes that the most immediate needs are for enlarging and remodeling of present classroom facilities.

IN ADDITION, the educator notes, housing for married students and a new church are needed on the campus.

According to Alfred Gordon, Sabbath school leader of the local church, the Saturday morning report is one of 12 being presented during the second quarter of 1969, to familiarize church members with Adventist mission activities.

On Saturday, June 28, the congregation will be asked to give a special offering for the Northeast Brazil College.

White-Negro Marriages: Baptist Views Pros, Cons

By T. B. MASTON
Retired Professor of Ethics,
Southwestern Baptist
Theological Seminary

The following are personal conclusions concerning interracial marriages, which, I believe, Christians should think through carefully and prayerfully.

1. A case cannot be made against interracial marriages on the basis of any specific teaching on the Scriptures.

2. Laws in the past and the general prejudice and pressure against interracial marriages have not prevented the mixing of the races. It is estimated that approximately 75 per cent of the Negro people of the United States are of mixed blood.

3. A fear by some white people concerning a marked increase in intermarriage does not seem justified. There doubtless will be some increase as Negroes and whites mix more freely at school and in the community. But it seems that the vast majority of Negroes do not desire to marry outside of their own race.

4. Let us not forget that interracial marriages involve two people. White people should not put all the blame on the Negro when such marriages occur. A white person is involved in every interracial marriage.

5. It seems quite clear that interracial marriages, at least in our culture, are not wise. It is difficult enough to achieve a satisfactory adjustment within marriage with a person of one's own race and culture. The difficulties are multiplied when one marries a person from another race. The verdict of common sense is not only against the marriage of Negroes and whites; it also raises serious questions about many other interracial or intercultural marriages.

6. Under certain conditions a marriage for a child of God may not only be unwise but positively wrong. He should take into consideration the effects of what he does on the body of Christ, the church, and on the members of that body.

Paul plainly says that the Christian is not to seek his own good but the good of others (1 Cor. 10:24). What he does is to be done for the glory of God (1 Cor. 10:31). These and other biblical principles are just as applicable to marriage as to other areas of our lives.

This means that any marriage is wrong — interracial or otherwise — if by entering into the marriage the Christian will lose or greatly reduce his effectiveness in the work of the Lord or if the marriage will

Temple Menorah Grancell Sanctuary Dedication Planned

A three-day dedication program for the new Isaac H. and Anna Grancell Sanctuary at Temple Menorah of the South Bay will begin with Sabbath Services at 8:15 p.m. Friday, April 25, in the temple, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Joining Rabbi Jerome A. Unger, spiritual leader of the temple, will be guest speaker Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath of New York, who is president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. It serves 700 Reform congregations with more than one million congregants.

AN HONOR guest during the three-day program will be Anna Grancell, who helped make the new House of Prayer possible, and it is being named for her and her late husband. The Grancells, longtime residents of Redondo Beach, were among the early founders of Temple Menorah.

Sy Zimmerman, its current president, said that today it serves a broad area which, in addition to Redondo Beach, includes the communities of Inglewood, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Torrance, Lomita, Hawthorne, Palos Verdes and Rolling Hills.

ALSO PLAYING key roles at the dedication ceremonies will be the temple's Cantor Morris Greenfield, and Clark Kates, immediate past president, who is chairman of the building committee.

A formal dinner-dance will be held in the temple Saturday beginning with the cocktail hour at 7 p.m. Dancing will be to the music of Everett Covin and his orchestra.

Official dedication of the Grancell Sanctuary will take place at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, and the principal speaker will be Dr. Alfred Gottschalk, dean of the California School of the Hebrew Union College.

EXPECTED to attend are civic, community and religious leaders from the surrounding area.

Temple president Zimmerman said that the new sanctuary has been designed by Kenneth Lind Associates, A.I.A., to seat 400 persons, while sliding doors can combine it with the former sanctuary, now the temple's community hall, to accommodate a crowd up to 1,000.

ZIMMERMAN noted that Isaac and Anna Grancell helped found the temple in 1946 when they purchased the former Odd Fellow's Hall and had it reconstructed to serve as the South Bay Jewish Community Center.

A year later the name was changed to Temple Menorah, and Zimmerman added that its growth has been made possible in large measure by the continued support of the Grancell family.

REUNION—Mrs. Anna Grancell, among the founders of Temple Menorah in Redondo Beach, will be reunited with an old friend, Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath, president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, at 8:15 p.m. Friday, April 25. He will speak at the Sabbath services opening a three-day program of dedication ceremonies for the new Isaac H. and Anna Grancell Sanctuary at the temple, 1101 Camino Real.

Christian Scientists To Give Bible-Lesson

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?"

This verse from Micah sets the theme of the Bible Lesson-Sermon on "Doctrine of Atonement" which will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

Services are at 11 a.m., at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 218th and Manuel Avenue.

A correlative passage from the denominational textbook comments: "Every pang of repentance and suffering, every effort for reform, every good thought and deed, will help us to understand Jesus' atonement for sin and aid its efficacy, but if the sinner continues to pray and repent, sin and sorrow, he has little part in the atonement — in the atonement with God — for he lacks the practical repentance, which reforms the heart and enables man to do the will of wisdom" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy).

"Who's in Control?"

Most of us like to feel that we're "in the driver's seat." But what happens when, for one reason or another, we lose control of our experience?

In this public lecture, Charles W. Ferris, an experienced Christian Science practitioner, shows how we can take control of our experience by submitting to the perfect control of God.

In three actual and vivid experiences he tells how health was restored, a business career saved, and human relationships corrected, all when the individuals involved were willing to submit to the perfect will of God.

Admission is free. Everyone is welcome.
